“ Brian and Lorna, I just seen this in the paper this morning. I am in shock!! I remember when Brock and Matt were at Vicki's daycare together. They were so close then. My heartfelt sorrow goes out to you and the family. It just isn't fair.
Sincerely
Dawn (Seeger) Smicker

“ Lorna and Brian and the rest of the family... I just heard today and I know Deidre is there representing the rest of us who could not be there.. I don't even know what to say except that my heart is aching for you. I can't even imagine. It would seem like a part of you missing, a bright bulb tuned off.. I am sorry if I am not expressing myself clearly, I just want you to know, that you have my heartfelt sympathies @this time .Thinking of you with Love!

“ To the Family of Brock, I am SO SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS! I did not know Brock but I know my boys, Aaron and Ryan, did. I know your pain Mr. and Mrs. Prince and at the anniversary of Aaron's death, I am deeply sadden and sick over your loss!! There is no pain like the loss of a child :(I pray for you both and your family as you enter this journey of grieving! He will always be with you and you now have a handsome angel watching over you! Prayers and Blessings to you all, for your lives will forever be changed!! Brock, give Aaron a great big hug from his Mommy!

“ Unfortunately we have not seen Brock in a few years but I will always remember what a good athlete he was and his love for sports. I have great memories of Brock's visit to Arizona and our trip to Rocky Point, Mexico. We had a great time parasailing, riding the banana boats and enjoying the beach. But my best memory of that trip was when Brock spotted a nude sunbather very close to our campsite..... I don't know what I enjoyed more, watching this young teenager Brock as he tried to get better views or my own fascination with the sunbather. Our deepest sympathies to Brian, Lorna, brother, sisters, nieces, nephews, family and friends. With fond memories of a very special nephew. Uncle Fred and Aunt Marsha

“ Brock I've known you since we were little kids. Through wildcat football and cheerleading, all through grade, middle and high school, i worked with you and you were always so fun to be around when we hungout. You werent afraid of taking any chances and was always in such a cheerful mood. This isnt fair..and so many people are affected by this. We will never forget you. RIP Brock Lee and Cheese <3

“ Back in 5th grade. First year I moved to manteno. He was the 8th grader who sat across from me on the bus. Our age difference didnt mean anything to him. He treated me better than I could have hoped for. Opened my eyes to something that was new for me and important in middle school when its all more important. Even though it is a small memory he still played an important role in my life.. will miss you.

“ I keep trying to ignore the fact that your gone. You were more than my cousin. You were my older brother and my best friend. I'm so blessed to have gotten to grow up with you and spend so much time together. You always protected you and it sucks that this is were our story has to end. But it's okay because grandpa was getting lonely there and you can now be with someone you looked up to. We are gonna miss him more than anything and there won't be a day that passes that I don't think of you. Love you forever RIP

“ Brock, you were such a wonderful person, my children loved thier "Uncle" Brock and will miss you teaching them how to climb trees and playing catch with them at the camp site. You were a friend to me and the Radtke family will miss you dearly. I told my 5 year old son Brad yesterday that you are now with his Papa Radtke in heaven, he told me that he wanted to draw you a picture of you and him playing together. He grabbed a pen and the first pad of paper he could find and drew a stick figure photo of you two playing, "I'm assuming you are the taller one" :) You were truly a bright light in this world Brock and you will be missed.

Jami Radtke Christiansen - July 01, 2014 at 09:22 AM

“ I'm not really sure what to say, I'm still having a hard time believing you're gone. I keep hoping I'll hear "psych! Just kidding!". There is so many things I want to say, but yet everything I try to write just makes me Think "you should've said this while he was alive Nichole". You were a truly amazing person, I was lucky enough to somewhat watch you grow up from the bratty, obnoxious little kid you were, to the funny, kind hearted, man you became. You were a diamond in the rough.... I wish we had kept in Contact more, and now it's to late. You will NEVER be forgotten Brock, all I can hope for now is you were met by grandpa with wide open arms and slobbery eyeball kisses. Rest in peace dear cousin of mine, keep smiling. I love you kid.

“ Brock was the sibling that would challenge us to a wrestling match, or just wrestle us without warning. He would always be happy to see us, no matter the circumstances. He would always greet us with a big bear hug. He never missed an opportunity to play with his nieces or nephews. He is a piece to our family puzzle, that makes us whole. He is going to be missed greatly, and there are no words to express just how much we love him. I can't imagine how life will be without him. Love you Brock, please, if you decide to haunt any one of us for fun... pick Jason.

Dusty Prince Contreras - July 01, 2014 at 01:08 AM

“ I remember when he was little how he'd light up all happy when he caught even the smallest fish at the club will miss that red headed child and all the smiles and laughter :(xoxo love u all sorry I can't be there with u guys thru your grief and loss love michelle

michelle joslin - July 01, 2014 at 01:03 AM

“ So very many memories. We had a lot of fun as kids and when I had my own he and them also had a really great relationship. A great uncle and great brother. To say he'll be missed is an understatement. Love you Brock!

Aaron DuMontelle - June 30, 2014 at 11:58 PM

“ I got to spend the moments with you and I cut your hair, we cooked out. You were so good with my son. He loved you. Uncle ginger. (he first didn't like it, but then later loved it) We laughed and talked. A week before we played Atari for hours and had a great time. I miss you so much.

Aaron DuMontelle - June 30, 2014 at 11:55 PM

“ I can't say it enough, I love you Brock! You were my only little brother. Your compassion and loving heart was very special to so many. My heart is aching so badly! My grief is such a profound love that has no place to go! I know we had a connection I will never find again. Wyatt is laying on my chest as I type this and said "I can hear Brock in your heart." That is where I know you will stay forever. Make sure you send me some signs of your eternal love now and then!

Amber Prince - June 30, 2014 at 11:33 PM

“ Brock made everyone he was around happy. He always had a smile on his face and love in his heart. I miss you so much already brother. I love you and will never forget the times we spent together.

“ I will always miss you and love my brother and I will Carrie you with me ever were I go i love you

dylan - June 30, 2014 at 09:23 PM

“ Brock always had a way of making people smile. He would listen and talk to you regardless of what it was about and be just as enthused about it as you were. He was the kind of person that would have gave his shirt off his back to a stranger and lend a hand at the same time. Whenever you we were at his trailer he always made sure everyone felt welcome and insured that everyone was enjoying themselves. There isn't many people like Brock, and I'm sure fortunate to have known and befriended such a cool guy. Rest in paradise my friend, hopefully we will meet again.

Brandon Senesac - June 30, 2014 at 08:32 PM

“ When I met Brock it was the night before his cousin Dave Sauls married my daughter Ariel Dunn. We met at the rehearsal and then went to the rehearsal dinner. Brock's smile lit up the whole room. It was if I had known him forever. He was a sweet, gentle, kind young man. I was very blessed to meet him. He will be missed.

Christy Dunn - June 30, 2014 at 08:23 PM

“ I only knew you for a short while, Brock. However, it did not take me much time to know you had a heart the size of the great outdoors. My heart goes out to your friends and family. You will be greatly missed.

“ Our heart is breaking because of this second loss to our family, but mostly it breaks for you and Lorna. A parent should never lose a child before they them selves. He was loved, both of you are loved. Our dear Lord is welcoming him with open arms as are his Grandfathers.
