“ One memory out of so so many - when we were in high school Carol dragged me with her to go volunteer for Easter Seals. We took disabled kids bowling every Saturday. It was one of the most enriching things I have ever done. She was always finding these amazing opportunities to help others. That positive energy, that huge smile that lights up the room, she has always been a star in so many many lives.

“ Oh, where to start.....the crazy days of working at Greenbriar! Then we lived together on Broadway. So many fun memories, Carol was the most boldest, bodacious, fun-loving person I ever met, her laugh lit up the room. Unfortunately FB was our form of communication for the last few years.....but that doesn't change how much I thought of you. Rest In Paradise my friend.

Melissa Mixen-Hennessy - April 25, 2018 at 09:08 PM

“ So many laughs, secrets, tears and laughing till we peed our pants. She could do everything and would laugh at me because I couldn't. One day she walked into my house when I was painting my new nail room and I had more paint on me and the carpet than I had on the wall. She said WTH move over and started painting my walls. She painted till like 1am while I held the ladder. So so many good times. I'm blessed that she started as a client to me but very quickly became a lifelong friend. Her life was just cut way to short. She had so much more living to do yet. Hope grandmas ok. Prayers to every one of you in the family.💜

“ I met Carol when we were in Business class together- we were both pursuing our Masters Business degree together at Colorado Technical University (online). We were a team and helped each other on group projects and at times gripped about our frustrations with the courses that we were taking. She will be missed and I know she is happier performing her new job in heaven. Hugs Carol and thank for being a friend. And hugs and hope to her family as well.

“ I never met Carol in person. I was blessed to get to know her through the wonderful internet. We played the same game together. We Held casual conversations in the chat message box. One night I was feeling extremely down and she was there to listen to me talk about my Mother of whom I was her caregiver. My Mom suffered Alzheimer's and Carol was a good listener and gave great advice. She was truly a lifesaver during that time. We have prayed for one another over the years and conversed here on line. I am so very sorry for your loss. She was truly a fabulous lady of whom I was blessed to know.
