“ Charlie will always have a special place in my heart. We worked together at the South Holland Post Office and I have many fond memories of him. He always thought of the other person. When I was going to quit the Post Office because they would not let me off on vacation with my family I threw my PO keys at the Postmaster and quit. Charlie caught me in the alley and talked the Postmaster into letting me go on vacation. That led me eventually retiring as Postmaster of Kankakee. Another time my TV broke and I didn't have any money to get another one. He loaned us a TV that he told me to keep. That was Charlie always doing for the other guy.
