“ We got in so much trouble as kids, but I loved you. You were my best friend and no one could come between us. Once we grew apart, I often wondered how you were. Many of the best memories of my life were with you. My heart just breaks and I wish we could have caught up one last time. My condolences to your family, as they were once like a second family to me. Sending my love to Sue and Alice both. I'm so glad Ashley will be there to help your babies through this time.
