“ I met Danny when I moved to Chebang in 1971. We have been friends since then. I would say as close as we were, he was probably my best friend. I sure do hope I was his. He worked for me for years, built 1/2 of my shop, spent years boating, fishing, you name it. On Saturdays we would often get together. I will miss him and cherish our 50 year friendship until I too, pass on. In 1984 got him to quit smoking cigarettes, even had him going to Church many times. He spent hundreds of hours in my dojo and went to Burley Wagners dojo together when we were kids. I am absolutely heartbroken he has passed. I am SO thankful he was part of my life. I shall miss him every day. I pray for him and his family at this sad time. I am absolutely heartbroken.
God Bless You Danny.
Your Friend,
Randy
