“ So many memories from this wonderful man that it's hard to choose! Two in particular come to mind.... When I was very little, and in an orphanage, Uncle George and Dad came to visit me and my sisters EVERY weekend to spend time with us. I remember this like it was yesterday! My face lit up like the sun when I saw his and my Dad's. Also, the story I was told about a camping trip that he was on with Auntie Phyllis, Dad and Sharon.... Dad and Uncle George shared a tent and had the whole campground busting out in laughter with their shananagans. Uncle George sure knew how to have fun..... I will miss you Uncle George ;(Donna Rogich-Roberts
