“ This man saved my son and I when I was pregnant.. I was 30yrs of age; working nights at Walmart in Layton Ut. Worked all night and didn't have wheels; he'd always cheer me up; and made sure I'd put my swollen feet up and he'd spoil me with the best food! That man could cook! He'd tell me the best life experiences! I'd then rest a bit and my mother would pick me up when she'd get off of school. He loved my son Michael Ryan Rominger! After having him Greg even helped with watching him a few hrs so I could go back to Weber State . He'd always tell me the sweetest things... my favorite was his story about his mother suing the state of Illinois for women's rights to drive truck(how cool). Last we had talked he had told me to send more of our family beets; and we talked about making a trip to see him; His voice was always so strong; He was always there for me no matter what! He was and always will be one of the greatest men I have ever known! Forever your Baby girl; Rachel R and little man Michael R Rominger. Xoxo

“ Greg

It was nice having you for a friend. Wow we go way back. It all started with our mother's friendship. She would bring you out to the farm and you Kurt and I would have a blast playing in the Creek. One evening we played a funny on you and told you there was a coyote on the bridge. You took the flash light and shined it on its eyes you were go scared you beat me and Kurt running to the house. Only than did we tell you it was only a raccoon. I remember your mom's motorhome she used to take us all traveling we had a great time. You will be missed.

“ Greg, may you have peace at last and free from pain. Remembering you as a little boy, helping Jack build our addition, probably about 3 or 4 years old. Such a cutie and great neighbor. We hold you in our prayers.

My sister Jan Wagner was also good friends with Greg. When my daughter Erica was born in December 1981 he came to my parents home dressed as Santa himself. He took Erica in his arms and smiled and spoke to her ever so softly. Got few photos to remember that time in her life. Glad we did. We stayed in contact thereafter. Such loving kind caring person. Heaven gained an angel. Miss and love you Greg. No more pain. Rest easy love.
