“ Great Uncle Jimmy was the most positive person I've had the privilege to meet. I'll always treasure the stories he told me about their childhood. He showed us how to be a kind soul and fill this world with light. I wish I had spent more time learning from him.

“ The McDonalds morning liars club will never be the same! I met Jim when I moved to Manteno in 2004. We hit it off right away. we would laugh and tell jokes and enjoy our coffees, First at Hardees and later at McDonalds. Jim loved to kibitz about work. He was a rail roader and I worked for Ford. We would find common idiots at our employment.

Jim bough a new car with a CD player in it and I had to download songs of gospel quartets for him and the Mrses to listen to while out and about their adventures. Jim took care of his girl right up to the end. She passed and I think he missed her so that he passed from a broken heart.

May God richly bless you Jim as you walk the streets of gold, again reunited with your girl!
