“ *Dearest Joyce and Mike Robins,
Please accept our deepest sympathy over the loss of Janice, your beloved sister.
All the platitudes like "She's in a better place now" are just from well-meaning people trying to ease your grief. But what better place is there than with her loved ones both family and friends? or "God wanted her" Did God need her more than you needed to share her love and example?
When the tears and grief start to fade let her live in your hearts and memories and share those with your loved ones.
As Abraham Lincoln said to a family who lost a son in the war, "May God grant you that consolation which is beyond all human power to give."
With our Love,
Dominick and Carmela
P. S. If you wish, please feel free to share this.*
