

Joseph F. Donohue

January 7, 1934 - November 2, 2019

Joseph F. Donohue, 85, of Wilmington, passed away November 2, 2019 at his home.

He was born January 7, 1934 in Manteno, a son of Ambrose and H. Irene (Tulley) Donohue. Joe was a Licensed Real Estate Broker and a farmer. He was a member of St. Rose Catholic Church in Kankakee and of the Moose. He loved traveling across the United States.

Joseph is survived by a nephew, Dan (Suzette) Nugent; a niece, Sue (Ken) Whiteside; great nephews, Aaron (Gloria) Nugent and Jared Nugent; great nieces, Melissa (Adam) Micklos and Nicole (Brian) Richardson; a great great nephew, Collin Nugent; a great great niece, Avery Micklos; cousins, Ellen Tulley and Kathleen Korb; a good friend, Moses Soza; and caregivers Nicole R., Megan R., and Taylor Jean J.

He is preceded in death by, his parents, grandparents, a sister, Jean Nugent; and brothers, James and Jack Donohue.

A graveside service will be held at Mount Olivet Cemetery in Wilmington on Friday, November 8, 2019 at 10 am.

Memorials may be made to Vitas Chicago South (Tinley Park) Program, 8525

W. 183rd Street, Suite M, Tinley Park, Illinois 60487.

Previous Events

Burial

NOV 8. 10:00 AM (CT)

Mount Olivet Cemetery
Wilmington , IL

Tribute Wall

“ Joseph F. Donohue

October 06, 2023 at 01:14 PM

“ Tom, so very sorry for your Uncle's loss. Barb and Jerry Jackson.

Barb Jackson - November 06, 2019 at 06:01 PM

“ MR MRS sent a virtual gift in memory of Joseph F. Donohue

MR MRS - November 05, 2019 at 08:54 AM