“ Judy and I were friends since 1st grade. Judy and her sister were the first people I met when I was 6 yrs old on church st, We did a lot together growing up, But time and circumstances drifted us apart. Last time I saw Judy I believe was 5 yrs ago at our Morgan Park Reunion. Judy may you rest in Peace, I will always cherish the good times.

Love Karen HOLCK Ketterman.

My Family (Ohse) lived a couple houses down from the Burke's house on Hermosa Avenue in Chicago. I was always over at their house when I was younger. Judy and my older Brother James were good friends. I haven't seen Judy for many many years, but every year on FB we would send each other a Happy Birthday wish. To Judy's Family, I am so very sorry for Your Loss. Judy was always quiet, soft spoken, and a Wonderful Person. May she Rest in Peace.

Judy and Joanne were my best friends till I was twelve when my family moved to Washington DC. It just about broke my heart. I lost total contact with Judy till just about ten years ago. We met up in down town Chicago but we had naturally changed so much. But I still reconized the warmth and gentalness of a wonderful soul. Rest in peace Freckle Face your loving Bubble Head.
