“ We have had a beautiful sunrise and sunset yesterday! When I saw it did not make me cry... it made me smile... because I felt the peace and a comfort knowing that Aunt Kathleen was with Hazy and everyone else we have lost. I little message from heaven.. and it was received.

“ I remember when I use to babysit for Heather and DMarcy and we all lived so close together and could visit all the time we would just be blocks apart. Then Kathleen and Jackie, Nancy got a apartment together right there in Bradley so we still stayed close. then later she moved into the house in Kankakee on Small St that I grew up in and I stayed with her for awhile. then I moved out of state and didn't get to see family for over 20 years. When I went back she was sanding the bedrooms floors upstairs of the house on Fulton where she grew up and was living. She said she enjoyed the restoring. I miss her we had a great visit. Now the family is living all over the US and we don't get to visit and spend time with each other like we did growing up. I am going to miss her she was so caring and sweet.
Love you Kathleen
