“ She had the sweetest voice and told so many stories. That usually started with the soft sing song voice you kids or Amy and Billy. You had an eager audience especially when I grew older, (your voice transported me to my childhood like it was yesterday) your stories were filled with our family history when I was little. You past down your wisdom and guidance in those stories for me to decide what to do with it. You touch my heart in so many was and will be part of me, my thoughts and prayers. Love you more.
