“ I cannot get off work for Margie's memorial but I am with you all in spirit. Margie was one of the most gracious and loving people I have known. You couldn't walk in the door for five minutes without being served a cup of coffee, whatever time you happened to show up. Just the mention of her kids and grand kids brought out photos and lit her up like a light bulb. One time we even came home with a lop-eared rabbit named Clyde :)
