“ Mary was one of the first people I met when I moved into Eastcourt Village in 2011. We became best friends almost immediately. Both being rather, shall we say, stubborn we butted heads on many occasions but also created many good memories. Mary was an avid euchre player and made a good partner. I think we won more than we lost. She moved to Riverwoods first and I joined her over there about a year and a half later. With all of her 'paraphernalia' it was easier for me to go down the one flight of stairs for our coffee clutches (gossip sessions) although she did make it 'down' (even though I lived on 4 and she on 3) to visit me and watch the sunset from my balcony. We had a way of talking to each other that probably no one else could get away with but we had a deep and honest friendship. Mary, you are already sorely missed and I am glad that you got to come to both the Christmas get together and my going away party. I will keep the memory of how nice you looked and how you enjoyed being at those two parties. Fly high my friend.
