“ Mrs. Grise, Suzie, Jim, Scott and Patty; Although we haven't seen each other in years, I think of you often and all the fun we had! I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Your Husband / Dad was a wonderful man! I remember him taking us out to the farm one summer and what a great time we had! My prayers are with you all.

“ Dad told me that when Paul first joined him and Uncle Duke at their one room school in Manteno he didn't speak a word of English. Like so many families of that era they only spoke French at home. But it was the start of lifelong friendships for the three of them. All those 4th of July and Labor Day picnics and winter time euchre games at the elevator...they're probably playing a few hands right now - nickle a point, dime a set.
