

Robert A. LaMore

August 16, 1955 - September 19, 2013

Robert A. LaMore, 58, of Manteno, passed away Thursday (Sept. 19, 2013) at Presence Heritage Village in Kankakee. Visitation will be from 3 p.m. Wednesday until the 7 p.m. funeral service at Brown Funeral Home, Manteno. Father Al Heidecke will officiate. Burial will be in St. Joseph Cemetery, Manteno. Memorials may be made to the family wishes.

Mr. LaMore was a farmer. He was also a welder at CBI for 24 years and worked at the Canadian National railroad for 10 years. He was an auxiliary police officer in Manteno. He was born Aug. 16, 1955, in Kankakee, the son of Orvan and Theresa Pauquette LaMore. His wife, the former Judith Hoots, whom he married Sept. 29, 1973, in Bourbonnais, preceded him in death Oct. 16, 2012. He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Manteno. He enjoyed watching the Chicago White Sox and the Chicago Bears, and listening to Creedance Clearwater Revival.

Surviving are two sons, Craig LaMore and Jennifer Janda, and Matt LaMore, both of Manteno; two grandchildren, R.J. LaMore and Cyler LaMore; two sisters and brothers-in-law, Donna and Darrell Moseley, of Manteno, and Dee Dee and Ken Butler, of Bourbonnais; and one sister-in-law, Paulette LaMore, of Manteno.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Ray.

“ I haven't seen Robert probably since 1980 but I went to school with him from OLA to Manteno High School. I remember playing football at OLA(YES THEY LET US PLAY FOOTBALL AT RECESS)and you always wanted to be on Bob's team because he was bigger and tougher than most of and he scored a lot of touchdowns. I don't remember a whole lot but Bob was always nice to me and he was a good man. May God bless you and keep you at this difficult time...it's hard to believe he is gone. God Bless...Joe Baird Edwardsville IL.
