“ I was just informed of Rodney's passing today. Rodney did my hair for many years. He was an artist of hair. I always enjoyed seeing him and talking with him. He was a kind and caring man. I have missed him since he stopped doing hair and I think of him every time I have an appointment to get my hair done. So sorry for your loss, Denise and family.

“ Rodney was my friend. He was kind and generous. We lost touch when I left the Kankakee area in 2005. He left us too soon.

“ I am shocked to read about Rodney. He did my hair for many years - what a terrific hair cutter and stylist! I wanted a cut that other stylists said they couldn't do on my hair, but low and behold, Rodney did it! Always enjoyed seeing him and going there. I've since moved away from the area but will remember him fondly. A big loss to the hair world! Know he loved old phonographs etc. My sincere sympathy on your loss. Sue Beutien Hoskins

Rodney's passing had saddened me greatly! He was my stylist for over 30 years, and a friend as well. He shared cooking tips and garden plants, and was a kind and gentle soul. Rest in peace, my friend.

I am so sad to hear this. Rodney did my hair for many years and he was also a wonderful friend. Such a kind man, he did so many thoughtful things for people. I will never forget that when my dad passed away, Rodney came to his wake to see me. Praying for his sweet soul and his family. 🙏❤️

I am proud to say: Rodney was my cousin! He and I are real McCoys. He cut my hair. Whether I was in Bourbonnais ,New Mexico ,or Crystal Lake, I would drive or FLY home every 5 weeks for a 'Rodney Jon Haircut'. He will be forever missed. Prayers for his family who I know miss him as well. I'm blessed to have had him, for my cousin and beautician.
