

Scott Vandenberg

September 21, 1963 - April 1, 2021

Scott W. Vandenberg, 57, of Bourbonnais, passed away Thursday, April 1, 2021 at his home.

He was born September 21, 1963 in Chicago a son of Robert Vandenberg and Lou Ann Meindle Meyers. He was a union tuckpointer. On August 1, 1992 he married Kathy Nash in Homewood, Illinois.

Scott is survived by his wife, Kathy; two children, Rick (Taylor Irvin) Nashkoff of Manteno and Amber (Michael Porter) Vandenberg of Manteno; two grandchildren, Rick and Kiera Nashkoff; his parents; and a brother, Chris (Diane) Vandenberg of Cary.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Kay Vandenberg, Robert Vandenberg, Eleanor Meindle Mays, and John Boettcher Meindle.

Scott enjoyed fishing and spending time on the lake fronts. He was an avid Chicago Cubs Fan and loved going to concerts. Most of all he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends.

A private service will be held at the convenience of the family.
In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Uplifted Care.

“ He was my first luv had to be 12 years old. He came home with my brother I was painting the porch stairs we locked eyes. He'd spend the night come into my room and ask if he was cuter then all the tiger beat pictures on my wall of course he was We spent years talking in the hallway on Lincoln and hours on the phone. Years later at grams He was truly special to me My first and forever true luv. I'm sorry I couldn't save u from your demons but I will forever hold u in a special place with amazing memories I will hold onto forever❤️

“ My Name is Kevin Stiles. I met Scott and then his brother growing up on the Northside of Chicago. I have so many memories of concerts. Hanging out and working together. We found out years later that our fathers worked together. I called Scott almost everyday for the past couple years and lifted his spirits as he did mine. I'll miss you brother . Me you and Chuck will hang out we each other again. Also again with your brother and all of the many friends you acquired in your lifetime. You touched a lot of people especially your Wife and Daughter and Step son and family. Rip We Love You!!

“ My brother and I have shared many memories together good and bad. But I will always choose to remember the best of memories. Things we did together as young children. Our day's going to school together and playing in the playground after school. We both have gone to many concerts together. We also love our Cubs and have gone too many games together with his nephews Nathan and Derek. We were also in the same career together as Tuckpointers. And worked many years together side by side on many of the most prominent buildings downtown ,Chicago like the Wrigley Building. I am deeply saddened of the loss of my brother and he will truly be missed. But my good memories of him and I together will live on with me forever until the day the good Lord decides take me home. Scott I Will Always Love You!💕👍😎🇺🇸💕

It's been a long time since we have seen each other last but you have been in my teenage memories more often than not. You will live on in everyone's thoughts.
